From: Robin Houston
To: Robin Houston;
Subject: EPC Food Service Recall- Chef Pierre Choc Peanut Butter Silk Pie
Date: Friday, January 30, 2009 2:22:41 PM
Attachments: Dale Pace2.vcf

To: EPC Food Service Directors

From: Southwestern Ohio EPC

Date: January 30, 2009

Subject: Chef Pierre Choc Peanut Butter Silk Pie RECALL

The letter below was forwarded to the EPC regarding the peanut butter recall. For further information on items in the recall go to: http://www.fda.gov/oc/opacom/hottopics/salmonellatyph.html

==========

January 30, 2009

If you currently have this product in inventory , Please get a count and notify myself at dale.pace@gfs.com or Amy Phillips at amy.phillips@gfs.com and dispose of the product immediately.

Sara Lee North American Foodservice is recalling the following product due to an expansion of a recall by Peanut Corporation of America's (PCA), Georgia facility, which is the focus of an FDA investigation. Specifically, on January 28, 2009 PCA expanded their prior recall to include additional products and to include all items their facility has produced since January 1, 2007. While Sara Lee was originally unaffected by PCA's prior peanut butter and peanut paste recall, the expanded recall includes peanut pieces. These peanut pieces were used in a single Sara Lee North American Foodservice product.

The item being recalled is:
GFS #235172 Chef Pierre Chocolate Peanut Butter Silk Pie, UPC code 32100 05095

The affected codes for this recall are Julian dates: 7103, 7201, 7242, 7331, 8018, 8133, 8199, 8256, and 8305.

There are no other products produced by Sara Lee affected by PCA's expanded recall.

Dale E. Pace
Gordon Food Service
Non-Commercial Sales
VM# 1-800-905-1798
dale.pace@gfs.com
www.gfs.com